INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

No. 3920/360 Dated Bangalore 8th May 1900.

Enc. 1

From

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE, GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith extract of letter No: 656 dated 25th April, 1900, from the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore, containing a recommendation on behalf of Keser Singh, Inspector of the Bangalore city.

Keser Singh was appointed City Inspector of Bangalore on Rs 100+20 horse allowance in November 1898. Though as Head Quarter Inspector of Tumkur, he he was getting the same pay and his ~ transfer to Bangalore as City Inspector involved heavier and more onerous work, he could not be given more pay as the latter appointment carried a progressive pay rising from Rs 100 to 150 without the sanction of ~ Government, and I could not apply to Government in the matter till I was satisfied that Keser Singh was capable of doing justice to the ~ appointment and deserved to be confirmed in the office. Nor was it very necessary just then as he had been allowed to draw Rs 50/- as Plague allowance to him. But this Plague allowance ceased on the 1st. June 1899 though plague had not entirely disappeared at the time. To compensate him, however, for the loss and in consideration of the good services rendered by him during the prevalence of plague in the city, he was on 1st October 1899, promoted, as a temporary arrangement, to the grade of the Senior Head-Quarter Inspector on Rs 130+20 which became vacant by the appointment of S. Narayana Rao as Amildar of Siddaghatta.

The Deputy Commissioner now recommends that the City Inspector's Grade, viz. Rs 100 to 150, may be conferred upon Keser Singh, that he may be allowed to count his service from the date on which he took charge of the Bangalore City, viz, 26 November 1898, towards the annual increments with Rs 130/- (his present pay) as the starting pay. The effect of this proposal would be that as one year and 4 months have elapsed from that date, he would be entitled to one increment of Rs 10/- to his present pay of Rs 130/-. It is a great pleasure to me to find that Keser Singh has given every satisfaction to his superiors in the troublesome and hardworked appointment of City Inspector and that at a time when Plague and the Extensions in the city demanded extra care and vigilance on his part. For similar good services rendered by the City Inspector of Mysore, Syeduddin, the Government was pleased on my recommendation to give him the maximum pay of Rs 200/-. I beg accordingly to Submit that the case of Kesri Singh deserves exceptional treatment and to recommend that he may be confirmed as City Inspector with pay of Rs 140/- per mensem from the 1st instant.

The Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that Inspector Kaser Singh was brought to Bangalore as City Inspector in November 1898. After coming to the city he was getting a monthly Plague allowance of Rs 50/- which, however was ordered to be stopped from the 1st June 1899 though at that time Plague had not entirely disappeared from the City and a major portion of the Plague Police staff was still retained. In consideration of his satisfactory services as City Inspector and his claims claims for promotion as Senr. Head Quarter Inspector, you were pleased to give him the special grade of Head Quarter Inspector in October last. He has been working all along in the City as Head Quarter Inspector and I now recommend that the Mysore City Inspector's grade may be kindly conferred upon him as an encouragement which he so well merits. In doing this, the increment from Rs 130/- (his present pay) to the next higher one may be made to run with effect from the date on which he commenced his work in the City, Viz, 26-11-98, and as already 1 year and 4 months have elapsed from the said date the next increment of Rs 10/- which he may be considered to have fully earned may be added to his present pay.

I have etc,
